

Partial Experience List – Financial Services Industry

Data Migration

For a Cincinnati based financial organization, Managed a data migration and application development initiative. This initiative was architected and led by eTeam senior consultants and client employees.

Software Migration

For a New Jersey based financial organization, Migrated the Peoplesoft implementation to the most recent release and helped co-ordinate the migration of subsequent programs and functionality affected by the software migration. Training their operations staff to manage the new version of the implementation.

Messaging Architecture

For a Massachusetts based financial organization, Designed the integration architecture for their Market data solutions using TIBCO as the technology enabler.

Competency Center Development

For a New York based banking organization, Mentored the competency center in building ATG based B2B and B2C applications. This has resulted in significant cost savings.

Messaging Architecture

For a New York based financial and securities organization, Designed the architecture for integrating their disparate legacy and client server environment using WebSphere and TIBCO as the enabling environment.

Functionality and Technology Support

For a fortune 50 insurance provider, Providing insurance subject matter expertise and technology expertise to develop a policy-issuing system using Cool:Gen

Role Based Access Control

For a Fortune 500 insurance provider, Architected HIPAA compliant centralized role based access control system.

Functionality & Technology Evaluation

For a Fortune 500 insurance provider, Performed technology and functionality gap fit analysis to develop centralized role based access control system.

Financial Data Integration Implementation:

For a New York Based Financial Organization defined a best practice with end-to-end approach for Financial Data integration using ETL and ETVML technologies. ETVML (Extract, Transform, Validate, match and load) is the architectural component of data integration management approach that makes data quality assurance integral to the end goal.

Sales Data warehouse

For a Connecticut based Financial Organization performed Data infrastructure, Data architecture, Data planning, Data recovery, ETL Development, Data Administration to deliver efficient Data warehouse and Business Intelligence solutions for Sales Data Warehouse of the Finance Department.

Financial Sales Analysis Data warehouse

For a New York based financial organization implemented a sales datawarehouse that helped in analyzing various trends and performing sales analysis involving calculation of sales per region and categorize the customers based on their profile.

Insurance Data Warehouse

For a Connecticut based Insurance company built an Insurance Data Warehouse project which was aimed at building a Insurance Data Warehouse which provides the information about Policy Transactions, Premium and Claims Transactions data to the business users for efficient decision making regarding Policies and claims.

Helpdesk & Desktop Support

For a US based financial services organization, Providing helpdesk and technical support to a 1200 user IBM environment.

Financial Services Testing Environment Setup

For an international financial services organization, Set up a highly configurable charge back testing environment

Revenue Reporting Application

For US based financial services company, Provided design, architecture, development & testing support for a revenue reporting application using Microsoft Technologies

ETL Architecture & Data Cleansing

For US based financial services company, Development and Data Cleansing using Informatica, Trillium and disparate data sources.

Project Management

For US based financial services company, Provided RUP based project management expertise to a compliance reporting system in the areas of Fixed Income and Structured Financial Obligations.

Custom Development

For an international financial services company, Provided design, architecture, development & testing support in J2EE environment for fixed income, credit derivatives and Prime Brokerage client facing applications.

Reporting Infrastructure Integration

For US based financial services company, Integrated and supported various reporting applications in Equity Broker Group using messaging infrastructure in the J2ee, JMS environment.

Corporate Network Architecture

Architected and supported corporate network and IT infrastructure in the Fixed Income unit. Architected and Supported a global migration of 30,000 mailboxes worldwide from Exchange 5.5 Server to Exchange 2003 Server.

SOX Compliance Advisory Services

For New York based financial services company, Delivered evaluation, analysis & remediation expertise to make financial systems SOX compliant.

DW and BI Support

For Atlanta based banking organization, Provided platform architecture and product support in Informatica, Cognos and Ab Initio

BI Architecture & Implementation support

For North Carolina based banking organization, Provided platform architecture and product support in Informatica, Hyperion and Microstrategy